EDITORIAL

This season the committee has decided to institute an intra-club teams competition. Three teams made up of players from each grade will compete for the Slugger Isaacs trophy while the losers (and I do mean losers) will collect the Motor Memorial for finishing last. The team finishing second will experience both the frustration of missing out on the prestigious first prize and the relief at avoiding last.

The idea behind the competition is to encourage involvement in the club's hip and exciting social scene and to help everyone get to know each other a little bit better. Approached the right way all the serious objectives we hope will be attained will result as a subtle byproduct of the fun everyone is having.

The scoring will be based on a core of four areas but the possibilities beyond that are endless. Each team member will earn his team points by being present at training and post-match presentations and lose them points by not wearing the club t-shirt (when they finally arrive) to matches and not arriving on time. There is a sliding scale of points for the presentations which will see a player earn bonuses for bringing his parents, friends and GIRLS along. GIRLS of course score highest.

POINTS

Training	20 pts
Presentation	20 pts (player) 30 pts (friend) 40 pts (parents) 50 pts GIRLS
Lateness	20 pts
No T-shirt	20 pts

There is also the opportunity for the team captains to agree to compete for points for attendance at major functions, fund-raising, soccer or touch football competitions or challenges, golf comps or a million other things. There is also the option to impose joke penalties on the teams that are running second or third at the halfway mark.

Beachie, Rex and Fred are the three team captains with Peg-Leg Fred agreeing to act as competition co-ordinator. The three skippers will be responsible for tallying points, policing of the competition and (most importantly) getting everyone hyper about the whole exciting concept.

Because you guys are in at the start you have the honor of naming your team. These will be decided upon by the team members and will stand forever more. If two teams happen to hit upon the same idea then it's first come first served. Each player will remain with the same team he is selected in, no matter how many times he leaves and rejoins the club. Teams are free to adopt colors, t-shirts, scarves, hats or anything they like to proclaim their identity. New players each season will be inducted into teams via a draft which will kick in next season.

Any questions or suggestions can be directed to myself (Mark "Wally" Gately, club VICE PRESIDENT) or the team captains. The success of this idea rests with every player in the club. If you decide it's a waste of time and a pain in the arse it will quickly die a death. If, on the other hand, you decide it sounds like fun it will succeed beyond our wildest dreams and everyone will have a great time. Give it a go, you won't regret it. Teams will be announced tonight.
